ROOTS & ROUTES

Sankofa leads the composition

Cream space, a cobalt backward-looking bird and coral-gold route lines create an expressive, directional pack. The user-supplied textile reference informs the small supporting marks.

PRODUCT DETAILS FROM THE BRIEF

Sankofa Heritage Coffee
Mount Elgon, Uganda
Medium-roast Arabica / 250 g

Precise front study

Exact lettering and original logo inserts are retained in the scalable front study. The bag is a visualisation of the intended full-pack effect.

KANUNGU FOREST

Earth, growth and deep green

Asase Ye Duru becomes a large ivory form. Sharp leaf geometry, restrained coral and a dense green field give this edition its own character.

PRODUCT DETAILS FROM THE BRIEF

Bwindi Canopy Coffee
Bwindi Forest Edge, Uganda
Dark-roast Arabica / 250 g

Precise front study

Exact lettering and original logo inserts are retained in the scalable front study. The bag is a visualisation of the intended full-pack effect.

MEANING, WITH CLEAR ATTRIBUTION.

The artwork draws from different traditions. Adinkra references are Akan; Kwanzaa is African American and Pan-African. The coffee's proposed or specified origin is separate from the artistic source.

ADINKRA / AKAN

Sankofa: learning from the past. Asase Ye Duru: the earth sustaining life. Nsaa: workmanship. Adinkrahene: leadership. Dwennimmen: strength with humility. Akoma: patience. Akoma Ntoso: understanding and agreement.

KWANZAA / CONTEMPORARY INTERPRETATION

Ubuntu uses a new unity-cup graphic inspired by Kikombe cha Umoja, alongside Mkeka-inspired woven marks. It is not described as an ancient Ugandan symbol.

ORIGINAL GRAPHIC WORK

Ankole Hills, Sebei Elgon, Rwenzori Peaks and Nile Highland use newly drawn pastoral arcs, elevation forms, angular planes and flowing ribbons. They are not labelled as traditional glyphs.

THE NEXT STAGE: PRECISE PRODUCTION.

THE VISUAL IDENTITY

Twelve fronts, twelve matching QR backs and twelve repeat-pattern studies are supplied in the scalable PDF, with PNG previews. The original Bantu e.V. and BKC marks are included. KUKUNDA is the spelling throughout.

THE BAG VISUALISATIONS

The generated studio images show the intended printed-pouch appearance. Use the exact flat studies for lettering, logo proportions and names. These previews are design development, not finished manufacturing files.

PRODUCT INFORMATION

The user's first release is Roots & Routes plus Sebei Elgon. Their back copy reflects their live pages. Kanungu Forest retains brief-supplied details. The other nine remain product concepts. Ten QR destinations still need their pages published.

PRINT AND SHOP

Fit the artwork to the chosen printer's dimensions, fill the roaster/operator and batch fields, and obtain a physical proof. Keep each QR white margin intact. Use the matching back PNG in the same product card with the requested arrow. No website changes were published in this task.

COMMERCIAL DESIGN REFERENCE

Afro Coffee informed the ambition for bold colour and full-bag graphic character. All collection compositions are new; competitor artwork and claims are not reused.
